

UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROLINA PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

Ex-Senator M. C. Butler.

Dyspepsia is often caused by Catarrh of the Stomach—Peruna Relieves Catarrh of the Stomach and is Therefore a Remedy for Dyspepsia.

Hon. M. C. Butler, Ex-U. S. Senator from South Carolina for two terms, in a letter from Washington, D. C., writes to the Peruna Medicine Co., as follows:

"I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine, besides a good tonic."

Correct name for most cases of dyspepsia. In order to cure catarrh of the stomach the atarrh must be eradicated. Only an internal catarrh remedy, such as Peruna, is available.

Revised Formula.

"For a number of years requests have come to me from a multitude of grateful friends, urging that Peruna be given a slight laxative quality. I have been experimenting with a laxative addition for quite a length of time, and now feel gratified to announce to the friends of Peruna that I have incorporated such a quality in the medicine which, in my opinion, can only enhance its well-known beneficial character. S. B. HARTMAN, M. D."

So. 19-'06.

Peruna is the cultivated variety of the English weed, smallage.

Struck by Lightning.

Mrs. Nancy Cleary, of Brewster, N. C., suffered as if struck by lightning. She says: "I was almost paralyzed from my waist down and my back hurt me constantly, from female troubles. I had headache, seemed always tired, and felt as if I was dying. I took wine of Cardui, which cured me, and now I feel like a new person." Cardui relieves periodical pain, and makes sick women well. $1.00 at drug stores.

"Hermit Millionaire" Dead.
The late Mr. Robert Davies, of Bodolodeb, Bangor, North Wales, was known as the "Hermit Millionaire." He seldom left his house or grounds for a great many years, and, though in ordinary health, would see but few people beside his secretary, house-keeper and doctor. He was a bachelor. The very few strangers who gained admission found in him a shrewd but kindly old man with sincere though strong religious convictions, and living in a severely simple style of comfort. Every morning his secretary read to him from the Welsh Bible, after which a portion of time would be taken up by Mr. Davies conscientiously comparing the various claims upon him by the societies in which he was interested, amongst which the Salvation Army found a high place.—London Tit-Bits.

HE KNEW HIS BOOK.
"From a grammatical viewpoint," said the fair maid with the lofty forehead, "which do you consider correct—I had rather go home, or I would rather go home?"
"Neither," promptly answered the young man who was engaged in holding down the other end of the sofa. "I'd rather stay right here."—Chicago News.

The Hygiene of the Home.

Lecturing upon the "Hygiene of the Home," at the Hygienic Institute, London, Mr. Somerville Hastings advocated the abolition of carpets, hangings, and everything that could harbor dirt and dust. The quantity of dust that would lie on the point of a pin was sufficient in which to rear 3,000 colonies of germs, most of them noxious to human beings. Our hardy forefathers of the reigns of Mary, Elizabeth and James I. never washed face, hands, or clothing, and a bath was unknown. King James confined his personal ablutions to wiping the tips of his fingers with a damp napkin. Only students of history knew the horrors of life in the Middle Ages. It was almost inconceivably dirty.

The Gray Wolf a Fighter.

From a private letter written by Dr. Edward L. Munson, of Fort Assiniboine, Mont., we are permitted to quote a sentence or two which gives a notion of the power of the gray wolf, a matter that was referred to in an article recently printed in these columns. Dr. Munson says: "A fortnight ago I ran into an immense old dog wolf which must have weighed 150 or 160 pounds. I had only three dogs with me as the rest of the pack was off after a jack rabbit. The dogs, all fine fighters, all started for the wolf, and he whipped them in one, two, three order, in less time than it takes me to tell it. One he threw over a cut bank, crushed in the chest of another, and gashed the third dog's throat. I do not think that he could have done up three 100-pound wolf-hounds as easily, though these dogs of mine are all good fighters and savage brutes, and one was an 85-pound staghound."—Forest and Stream.

USEFUL HINTS.

Burned or discolored enamel ware may be cleaned by a rubbing with a paste made of kitchen salt and vinegar.

For wagon grease or tar stops rub well with kerosene while the grease is fresh, then wash out in cold, soft water, using no soap. Kerosene will remove ink stains and fresh paint, while nothing takes out bloodstains better than cold soapsuds, to which kerosene has been added.

Do not dress salads with sugar and vinegar or salt and vinegar; the latter is an admirable combination for scouring brass, but is not good for one's stomach. Use a mixture of oil and vinegar, lightly seasoned.

Candles should be stored for six or eight weeks before being used, they will then burn more brightly and more slowly than when lighted at once.

HIS REASON.

"Now then, Tommy," said the teacher, "is it right to say 'the winter has went'?"

"No'm!" yelled Tommy promptly. "Cause if yer did the foist thing yer know along would come a blizzard an' make yer out a liar."—Philadelphia Press.

REPAIRING BRAIN.

A Certain Way: My Food.

Every minister, lawyer, journalist, physician, author or business man is forced under pressure of modern conditions to the active and sometimes over-active use of the brain.

Analysis of the excreta thrown out by the pores shows that brain work breaks down the phosphate of potash, separating it from its heavier companion, albumen, and plain common sense teaches that this elemental principle must be introduced into the body anew each day, if we would replace the loss and rebuild the brain tissue.

We know that the phosphate of potash, as presented in certain field grains, has an affinity for albumen and that is the only way gray matter in the brain can be built. It will not answer to take the crude phosphate of potash of the drug shop, for nature rejects it. The elemental mineral must be presented through food directly from Nature's laboratory.

These facts have been made use of in the manufacture of Grape-Nuts, and any brain worker can prove the value of the proper selection of food by making free use of Grape-Nuts for ten days or two weeks. Sold by grocers everywhere (and in immense quantities). Manufactured by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

FIRST EFFECTS OF DISASTER.

Money Ordered in London For Shipments to San Francisco.

New York City.—The bewildered movement of financial markets, since news of the San Francisco disaster first arrived: the shipment of $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 from Eastern banks to banks of the stricken city, and simultaneously, engagement of some $10,000,000 in London for import to New York—this is an interesting picture of the first effect, on the world's finances, of a catastrophe of this nature, says the New York Post. These large supplies of money are temporarily needed in San Francisco, for the reason that business machinery is impaired by the destruction of the city, and cash rather than credit is necessary recourse. The solidarity of the financial system is shown by the promptness with which San Francisco's financial institutions were provided with these enlarged calls for resources from reserves of the markets nearest to them; then those other markets, as well as San Francisco, replenished by shipments from New York, while New York itself is drawing on London's gold.

Reports Cotton Crop.

The final report of the Director of the Census in Washington City on the production of cotton for 1905 aggregates the quantities included in each of the ten preliminary statements, including linters and in accordance with the custom of commercial community, counting round as half bales, the crop of 1905 is 10,725,000 bales. When compared with the crop of 1904, that of 1905 was 27.7 per cent. greater; that of 1903, 6.6 per cent. less, and that of 1902, 0.5 per cent. greater.

YANKEES WIN AT ATHENS

Secure More Trophies Than Any Other Nation Does.

Official Score of American Athletes Is 11 Firsts, 6 Seconds and 5 Thirds in 29 Events.

Athens, Greece.—The Olympic games of 1906 were brought to their official close when the King of Greece crowned the athletes who won prizes in the Stadium. There was a big assemblage, and all the athletes were received with applause. The men from the United States received an ovation, but the greatest reception of all was for the winner of the Marathon race, Herring, the Canadian. The athletes expressed themselves as highly delighted with the games.

The Games Commission proposes that busts of the winners be placed in the Stadium. The foreign competitors are discussing the erection of a marble statue of Victory on the hill overlooking the Stadium.

The overshadowing importance of the Marathon race in the estimation of the Athenians, as compared with the other events, is shown by the hero worship of which the winner has become the unwilling object. The Greeks have recovered from their disappointment that one of their countrymen did not win, and now showering gifts and attentions on the victor.

The Americans took eleven firsts, six seconds and five thirds out of twenty-nine events, in many of which, however, the Americans did not compete.

James E. Sullivan, manager of the American athletes here, announced the American victory to President Roosevelt in this cablegram: "Americans won hurdle, half mile and standing jump. Final score for Stadium events: America, eleven firsts, six seconds, five thirds; total, seventy-five points. Great Britain and all her possessions, four firsts, six seconds and three thirds; total, thirty-nine points. Greece and Sweden tied for third place. Great athletic victory for America."

The list of American firsts, which does not include the winning by C. M. Daniels, New York A. C., of the 100 metre swimming race, follows: 100 Metre Running Race—Won by Archie Hahn, Milwaukee A. C. Hurdles—Won by R. G. Leavitt, Williams College, Williamstown, Mass. 400 Metre Running Race—Won by Paul H. Pilgrim, N. Y. A. C. 800 Metre Running Race—Won by Paul H. Pilgrim, N. Y. A. C. 1500 Metre Running Race—Won by J. D. Lightbody, Chicago University. Running Long Jump—Won by Myer Prinstein, Irish-American A. C., New York. Standing Broad Jump—Won by Ray C. Ewry, N. Y. A. C. Standing High Jump—Won by Ray C. Ewry, N. Y. A. C. Free Style Discus Throwing—Won by Martin J. Sheridan, Irish-American A. C., New York. Throwing the Weight—Won by Martin J. Sheridan, Irish-American A. C., New York. 1500 Metre Walking Match—Won by George P. Bounag, Irish-American A. C., New York.

GOV. HOCH BY ACCLAMATION.

Kansas Platform Approves Roosevelt's Rate Regulation Message.

Topeka, Kan.—Governor Hoch was renominated by acclamation. When he appeared to accept he referred to the cats of the press and the growls of society, who used the name of a respectable woman in order to injure him.

This reference was to the recent hugging and kissing episode. The platform declares for railroad rate regulation as outlined in President Roosevelt's message.
